The warrant was read from Article 1 to 4, when it was voted that the further reading of the several articles be dispensed with.

Article 1. Voted, That Bowdoin B. Smith be instructed to cast one ballot bearing the name of George L. Barnes for Moderator, and he was declared elected; he was sworn to the faithful performance of that duty by the Town Clerk.

Mr. Barnes accepting the position to which he had been elected, expressed his appreciation of the continued confidence of the voters and his gratitude for their courtesy and support.

He further said, that this annual meeting was unusual in two important respects:

1. For the first time in the history of this ancient town, the women of Weymouth were participating as voters in the meeting. It seemed a fact of which more than passing notice should be taken. The moderator therefore stated that he felt he expressed the unanimous sentiment of all the voters present in welcoming to participation in town meetings the women of this town and also desired to express the satisfaction of all the male voters at the real contribution of public service that would be rendered by its female voters.

2. The second important characteristic of this meeting was that it marked a turning point in the history of Weymouth of a momentous character.

The moderator stated that it was probably the last general meeting that the town of Weymouth would ever hold as it seemed probable that the Act of the Massachusetts Legislature establishing a new form of town government would probably be accepted by the voters.

The moderator referred to the fact that the citizens of Weymouth had held meetings for the discussion of municipal affairs and the establishment of local self government from 1636, and that from that date to the hour of this meeting, "New England Town Meetings" had been the basis of Weymouth's local government.

He further said that while he had made mistakes, while there had been errors in judgment, that any one examining the whole record over that period of nearly three hundred years would find written there a record of orderly progress, seldom equalled and never surpassed in municipal affairs.

He also said that the town of Weymouth has all the necessities and many of the luxuries enjoyed by the municipalities in the Commonwealth, it has good roads, a fire department, a police department; the streets are well lighted and its people happy, prosperous and contented; at the same time it had paid its obligations as they matured. It has never been obliged to borrow outside its debt limit and its tax rate has not been excessive as compared with that of many other towns.

He said it was gratifying that the change in the form of town government was not made necessary of any breaking down of the established form of government, not because of any dishonesty or lack of confidence in public officials but solely because of the fact that the electorate had become too large for any hall in the town.

Article 2. Voted, That a committee of five be appointed by the moderator to bring in a list of Town Officers other than those elected by ballot.

The moderator appointed Stanley T. Torrey, James D. Bosworth, Joseph Kelly, Theron L. Tirrell and Walter L. Bates.

Article 3. That the several reports of the departments be accepted as in print.

Voted. That the committee appointed at the last annual town meeting to study the question of connecting the water system to the Metropolitan Water System, be given further time to the consideration of this question.

Article 4. Voted. That the Town Treasurer with the approval of the Selectmen be and hereby is authorized to borrow money from time to time in anticipation of the revenue of the financial year beginning January 1, 1921 and to issue note or notes therefor, payable within one year; any debt or debts incurred under this vote to be paid from the revenue of said financial year.

This vote was unanimously carried.

Article 5. Voted, That the Town Treasurer with the approval of the Selectmen be and hereby is authorized to borrow money from time to time in anticipation of the revenue of the financial year beginning January 1, 1922 and to issue note or notes therefor, payable within one year; any debt or debts incurred under this vote to be paid from the revenue of the financial year.

This vote was unanimously carried.

Mr. William J. Holbrook read resolutions upon the death of Albert P. Worthen.

"Albert P. Worthen served the Town of Weymouth as its counsel and advisor for nineteen years.

"His death occurring on the fifth day of October, 1920, caused a loss to the Town of Weymouth so great that it is deemed suitable that this memorial of appreciation of Mr. Worthen's service to the Town of Weymouth should be perpetuated in its records.

"Albert P. Worthen was a citizen ever mindful that his citizenship carried obligations as well as privileges. The record of his service to the town shows that he performed these duties and obligations with a high degree of skill, with a loyalty and faithfulness to the interests of the town of Weymouth, seldom if ever, equalled and never surpassed.

"His reputation for skilled judgement in municipal affairs, as well as his high personal integrity and honesty brought to him unanimous choice of the Town and City Solicitors Association as their president.

"Mr. Worthen as a lawyer had the respect and confidence of the bar and the public. As a man, a citizen and friend, he had the respect, the regard and love of all who knew him. His death has taken from us a sturdy champion of right and a stalwart defender of the best interests of the town of Weymouth but the recollection of his service to the town of Weymouth, of his character and attachment to public duty will endure in Weymouth until dissolution of the mind, and memory of all who knew him.

"For the purpose of recording the unanimous sentiment of the citizens of the town of Weymouth, the foregoing memorial is hereby adopted and ordered to be inscribed on the records of the town of Weymouth and it is further ordered that as an additional tribute of respect to Mr. Worthen a copy of these resolutions suitably inscribed and certified by the Clerk of the town be forwarded to Susan R. Worthen."

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

OF THE

TOWN OF WEYMOUTH

1921

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE

To the Citizens of Weymouth:

There are now in this town and have been for longer than a year last past more than three thousand pupils enrolled in our schools, and for whose proper training provision must be made. This number will steadily increase. We have not at this time adequate means for the education of so many children. How this need may be met most efficiently and economically will be one of the problems to be solved by study and discussion before the next annual town meeting, and it is hoped, one of the matters which will be properly settled at the town meeting. We hope every citizen of the town will carefully read and consider the report of the Superintendent of Schools with its summary of the work done and the many suggestions of what remains to be done.

The pressure at the High School must presently be relieved if the school is to continue its work efficiently. Last September such a condition was made easier by the portable schoolhouse which can accommodate no more than seventy pupils. The main building is now overcrowded, every room, including the assembly hall, being constantly used. In September next the High School will have one hundred and fifty more enrollments than in September last. Your committee believe that the time has come to make adequate and permanent provision for a High School, which will within a year have more than six hundred members, and probably within five years closely approach a membership of eight hundred.

To that end an article will be placed in the town warrant under which appropriate action may be taken at the annual meeting. It is hoped that there will be such public interest in this article that the entire subject may have thorough discussion before the appropriation committee, and, when the time for action comes, that it will be taken with full understanding of all the incidental needs and obligations. Your committee believe an additional building at the High School is required, and so recommend, they also believe that the whole matter requires full public discussion before the time of the annual meeting.

The improved sanitary conditions at the High School, made possible by the special appropriation of last summer, were greatly appreciated. Four other schools are in great need of similar improvements, the Shaw, Washington, Jefferson and Franklin Schools. This need is most particularly felt in the first two named. Your committee feel that $4,500 ought to be allowed for such improvement during the current year, not enough to cover all the cases named, but certainly enough for two.

The other special appropriation of last summer, $6,000, was intended to cover the additional expense of the unexpectedly large increase in the incoming class. The larger part of this appropriation, $3,694, was paid for a portable schoolhouse, an exact duplicate of the one completed in November of the previous year at North Weymouth, which has proved in use to be so satisfactory. These two buildings are true portable buildings, and as occasions arise, may be taken apart and erected elsewhere without material damage or defacement. The balance of this appropriation was used in purchasing equipment, fuel, and in partly paying the salaries of the two additional teachers.

The Town Accountant's report contains the details of both these special appropriations.

The budget submitted is in the form now being used by the various towns in their reports for the Commonwealth.

We expect the need of six additional teachers in the High School and one more teacher in the grades, and have so allowed in the estimate below.

The acquisition of the land at North Weymouth provides excellent and ample grounds for future school development in that part of the town.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Members of the School Committee:

I herewith submit my thirteenth annual report, the same being the thirty-sixth in the annual reports of the superintendent, of this town:-

THE CONTINUATION SCHOOL AND ITS GENERAL EFFECT UPON THE PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM

It is safe to presume that when the Continuation School law was passed in 1919, the purpose of that law was to provide additional schooling facilities for minors employed in factories, and not to force them out of employment altogether. The general effect however, as been to automatically raise the compulsory school age to sixteen. The factories do not now employ minors between fourteen and sixteen except in scattered instances.

In the year closing December 31, 1919, between two and three hundred different minors under sixteen were employed in various occupations in this town. The larger part of this number was employed regularly. In the year closing December 31, 1921, only eighty-nine different minors were employed. Actually at the present time, only twenty-four of these are working and attending the Continuation School one-half day per week.

We are therefore in the position of having a school well equipped but with very few pupils. At the beginning of September the amount of time devoted to this work was reduced to two days per week. Miss Alden is employed two days in the Continuation School, one day in teaching at the Hunt, and two days in sewing at the High School. Mr. Berry devotes three days to the Continuation School and follow-up work and two days to his regular work as principal of the Hunt School. The pupils who would ordinarily be in the Continuation School are now in the regular grades and have helped to increase the numbers in the upper grades to the extent that we are having difficulty in providing accommodations for them. This return of pupils between fourteen and sixteen to the regular schools is one of the reasons why we shall have so large a number in the High School in September and shall continue to have large classes to enter that institution in the future.

Every effort has been made to make the work profitable both to the pupil and to the employers, but with the present policy of the factories not to employ minors between fourteen and sixteen, there is absolutely no need of continuing the work. I strongly advise that it be discontinued in June or at an earlier date if necessary. If, however, the factories begin to employ these minors again, we shall be in the same condition as we were two years ago and it will be necessary to re-open the school.

The following figures, taken from the June registers, may be of interest:-

BOYS		GIRLS

ARE WE PAYING TOO MUCH FOR OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS?

This is the question which has been absorbing for some time the public attention and concerning which there is much confusion in the public mind. I doubt if anyone would quarrel with the statement that we as individuals get from life about what we put into it in intelligent thought and effort or that we as members of the community get from the School Department or any other department of the town, a fair return for what we put into them in active support or financial backing.

More money is being spent in this town today for roads, fire and police protection and the education of the children than would have been deemed possible or advisable a few years ago and yet I doubt if any would question the statement that this is a more desirable town in which to live than before such expenditures were undertaken. Money well spent is not wasted but brings a return either in kind or in added comfort, convenience and service. Money spent on good roads or adequate police and fire protection brings a direct return in convenience or safety. Money spent on education brings a return less immediately noticeable but none the less certain.

The children are our heritage from the past and our hostages for the future. Upon their proper training will depend not only their own success or failure but also the prosperity and development of the community in which they live. They are our chief asset and as such they should be preserved in health and mentally trained to fill the positions which they must occupy.

In every well-regulated family the children are the chief concern of the parents. Every sacrifice is made to give them the benefits which the parents may not have enjoyed. Every effort is made to preserve them, to protect them and make them able and fit to occupy positions of trust and responsibility.

In every well-regulated community the children should be the chief concern of the citizens, but are they? The very thing which we seek as individuals we lose sight of as members of a group. That which is everybody's business becomes nobody's business. The sacrifices which were a pleasure become a duty to be avoided wholly or in part. The interested effort, the striving for the welfare of the child deteriorates into a more or less perfunctory knowledge of school affairs and infrequent visits to the school, generally occasioned by trouble between teacher and pupil.

If the schools in this community or in any other community are to function properly, the same interest and care that surrounds the child in the home must follow the child into the school and guard him there. The children make the home, they are the reason for the existence of the school, they should command the best thought and effort of the community.

The schools are either a necessity or a luxury. If a necessity, they should rank as high as war, which is a purely destructive agency and which is costing three or four times what the schools cost. If a luxury, they should rank as high as tobacco, which is costing the people of this town annually three times the cost of the schools. And yet in the amiable age in which we live, no monitor stands at the shoulder of the man who purchases a cigar to remind him of this peculiar condition. If we could have for the schools next year an equal amount to that which will be spent in the town for candy and soft drinks, we should have more money than if we get the appropriation requested.

These observations are not made with the intention of criticising the past action of the town relative to the schools. The question is merely one of making existing conditions clear to the public. It has always been my experience that when the need became apparent the money was forthcoming. Financially the town is perfectly well able to meet the needs of the schools. It would be a far better policy to meet them as they arise than to allow them to accumulate.

SCHOOL ACCOMODATIONS

Any consideration of school needs or any estimate of future expense for the school system must take into account the fact that on September next we shall be face to face with a serious problem in the matter of providing school accommodations. The population of the town has been increasing, not rapidly but steadily for more than ten years.

At North Weymouth we have a two room portable to supplement the Athens School, an eleven room building. At the High School, a two room portable was erected in August to provide for a part of the increase in that building. The new ten room building at South Weymouth is already overcrowded, the ninth grade being on part time. In East Weymouth with an enrollment of over nine hundred pupils there is one room in the Franklin School which may be used to accomodate any increase which may occur in that ward. In Weymouth Landing two rooms will be available if the Continuation School is abolished.

Next September we shall have at the High School about six hundred pupils. In order that there may be no misunderstanding as to how these numbers are obtained, the following figures are given which may be verified:

Enrollment, High School (Sept. 1921)	450
Lost membership	19
Graduating Class (June 1922)	46
Remaining in High School (Sept. next)	385
Entering from Athens Grade IX	40
Entering from Humphrey Grade IX	68
Entering from Hunt Grade IX	36
Entering from Shaw Grade IX	15
Entering from Nevin Grade IX	59
Estimated number in High School Sept. 1922	603

These figures were taken from the registers the last of December. They may change to a limited extent but not sufficiently to make any great amount of difference.

The present High School was built in 1898 and was made to accomodate a maximum of three hundred fifty pupils, provided every class room in the building was occupied and every seat used. It is manifestly impossible, however, to run a building on that scale as some provision must be made for class room work. The building as it stands will accomodate comfortably less than three hundred pupils if allowance is made for dividing classes into sections and providing recitation rooms.

To illustrate, we have two hundred freshmen. According to the requirements of the State Board of Education, these should be divided in classes which will average not more than twenty-five for recitation purposes, making eight divisions. In assigning these to rooms which seat either twenty-eight or forty-two pupils, there will be a loss in the seating capacity of from three to seven-teen in each division.

There are two ways of remedying this crowded condition. First, we may retain our present plan of organization, enlarging the central high school so that it will be able to accomodate from six hundred to eight hundred pupils, or second, we may change our plan of organization, making a re-distribution of the grades in the different parts of the town.

It has been a common practice in the past to organize on the 8-4 basis, that is, eight grades in the elementary schools and four in the High School. The more recent practice and one which is coming into common use is to organize on the 6-3-3 basis, that is, six grades in the elementary schools, three in the Junior High School and three in the Senior High School.

We have in this town, the 9-4 plan, which has been widely used in this state but has been seldom met with outside of New England, nine grades in the elementary schools and four in the High School. This plan differs very little from the 8-4 plan, the chief difference being that the pupils are admitted a year younger and get a year's additional training. It is expensive, however, and the question of abandoning it may well be considered at the present time when we need more room.

The Junior High School plan could only be adopted if the age limit were raised to five years, ten months instead of four years, ten months, the room now occupied by the extra grade in the elementary schools being used for the freshmen class in the High School. In the three grades of the Junior High School would be accomplished the work now being done in the seventh, eighth, ninth grades, and the first year of the High School, the work of the first six grades being practically the same as is now being done under our present plan.

A suggestive program made by the committee on Junior High Schools is submitted which gives in detail the way such a plan is carried out.

	Grade VII	Grade VIII	Grade IX
English	5	5	5
Library	(1	(1	(1
	5(5(5(
Social Studies	(4	(4	(4
Mathematics	(3	(3	(3
	5(5(5(
Science	(2	(2	(2
Foreign Languages	(0	(0 or 4	(0 or 4
Practical Arts	(6	(2 or 6	(2 or 6 or 8
	10(10(10(
Fine Arts	(2	(2	(0 or 2 or 4
Physical Training	(2	(2	(2
Total	25	25	25

The above program requires a school day fifteen minutes longer than we have at the present time but that would not be a disadvantage as our day might well be lengthened.

Personally I prefer the plan of enlarging the High School for the following reasons:

1. The building will have to be remodelled and enlarged anyway. It will not even now accommodate comfortably the three upper classes.

2. The Junior High School is more expensive in the long run as it necessitates introducing the departmental plan in the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades. This plan has the effect of increasing the numbers of teachers for any given number of pupils.

3. It would be impossible to organize a successful Junior High School with less than three hundred pupils. East Weymouth is the only part of the town which has children enough in the three upper grades to justify undertaking such a school.

4. It would necessitate a building program in each of the wards which would total a greater expense than would be incurred by enlarging the High School.

5. It would necessitate doing away with the first grade for one year and after September, 1922, the entrance age would be five years and ten months or thereabouts. I doubt if the people are willing to agree to that arrangement.

6. The majority of the Junior High Schools in the state are such in name only. They are doing with a much greater expense work very little different from what we are doing.

The Practical Arts evening work in Millinery has proved very popular this year. One hundred seventy have been enrolled in Dressmaking and ninety-two in Millinery, making a total enrollment of two hundred sixty-two as against a total enrollment of one hundred twenty-five last year.

New classes in Millinery and Dressmaking, both afternoon and evening have been opened in North Weymouth.

Economically, these classes are a paying proposition as the value of the work done far exceeds the amount expended in instruction. Last year the market value of the dresses made in the classes was estimated at $4,066.75, the labor entering into them $2,027.68. In Millinery the market value of the product was estimated at $3,814.95 and the value of the labor $2,305.65. The gross value of the products for the year was $7,881.70. The total cost of running these classes including instruction, janitor service, heat, light, etc., was $1,720.28. Of this amount, the state paid one-half, leaving a net cost to the town of $860.14.

The classes offered in the Athens School were a new venture and the work was undertaken at the request of the state as a number of applications had been received for work at the Fore River Club House. According to the law governing this class of work a person desiring to take it may enter classes in another city or town if work of a like nature is not being offered in the town where the applicant resides. The town would have to pay one-half of the tuition charge if the work was taken in Quincy. It was, therefore, considered advisable to open classes in North Weymouth as the cost to the town would be no greater and the opportunity of doing this work could be shared by a larger number of women. That the work is considered profitable and instructive is shown by the increasing number of women taking it.

SCHOOL NURSE

It was very unfortunate that the work of the school nurse had to be discontinued in June. The District Nurse Association did not feel that it could provide a nurse for the balance of the year with the money appropriated by the town at the annual March meeting. According to a law passed at the last session of the Legislature it will now be necessary for the School Department to employ a nurse from its own funds. This will be done soon after January first. Miss Downey did excellent work during her connection with the department for one year and proved conclusively the value of a nurse to the school system.

AMERICANIZATION

One class in Americanization is being held at the High School with an attendance of sixteen. The members of this class are all over twenty-one. The work is planned to the end that those who desire may become citizens. This class comes under state supervision, one-half of the expense being borne jointly by the Federal and State Governments.

SCHOOL SAVINGS

The deposits in the school banks show a slight falling off from last year. This was naturally to be expected when we take into account the business depression which has been prevalent during the entire year. I feel, however, that the children are making a rather remarkable showing, the deposits amounting to over two dollars per capita. A few years ago it was considered almost impossible to get the children in the upper grades to deposit, but at the present time the grammar buildings are among the heaviest contributors. The James Humphrey School leads the list with a total deposit of $1,751.59. The Jefferson School, a primary building of only four grades has made a remarkable showing with a deposit of $1,193.25. Regular collections are now being made at the High School in order to give those who have formed the saving habit in the grades an opportunity to continue it. The amount collected is not large for the present year but I am sure that the record of the grammar buildings will be duplicated and that in a few years the pupils of the High School will be among the heaviest depositors.

DRAWING

Report of Miss Evelyn Silvester, Supervisor of Drawing.

The most noteworthy addition to the department this year has been reference material in the form of pictures. Good reproductions of paintings, pictures of sculpture, some in sepia and some in color, of about one hundred different subjects, give us a fair start toward a miniature art gallery for each school. With these pictures we hope to teach the children to appreciate fine works of art and to know intimately the entire collection at the end of their nine years of elementary school training. Also we hope to have the children know the chief characteristics of the style of the work of at least fifty different artists representing the art of Italy, France, England, Holland, Germany, Russia and America.

This kind of study lends itself nicely to English composition and is to be carried on in direct connection with that subject.

In selecting the pictures, care was taken to have the subject matter, whenever possible, relate to some other study in that particular grade. For instance, in grade six, the story of Sir Galahad is studied, so we have for some of the pictures, the beautiful hand colored reproductions of small size of Abbey's Mural Decorations of the Boston Public Library, which tell the story of the "Quest of the Holy Grail". Where wool raising is studied there we have Millet's beautiful pictures "Spring" and "Autumn" showing sheep grazing in the pastures.

For some of the pictures in the primary grade collections we have fine color prints, reproductions of Jessie Wilcox Smith's delightful illustrations of nursery rhymes and subjects dealing with child life.

This fall it has been necessary to set aside any extensive applied problems for Christmas in grades seven, eight and nine, as there was not sufficient time after completing an interesting, tho greatly rushed, poster contest for "Good Health."

The seventh grade worked out posters dealing with the foods to eat to make one healthy. Grade eight took for its subject "Healthy Exercise" and grade nine specialized on the cleanliness side of good health or any miscellaneous health topics.

The posters were hung in exhibition at the High School for Health Week and really showed much originality and interest on the part of the pupils.

Local clubs offered money prizes which added zest to the work and the interest of the parents in the work of our schools.

The prizes for the posters best illustrating how good health is to be obtained were awarded as follows:-

Grand Prize $5.00

Jordan Cazeault, Athens School, Grade IX
"The Spirit of Prevention."

First Prize, Grand IX, $2.50

Edmund Sylvester, Hunt School
"Loyal Companions"

Honorable Mention, Grade IX

Raymond Hollis, Hunt School
"Couriers of Health"

First Prize Grade VIII, $2.50

Mary Doble, Nevin School
"A Home Run for Health"

Honorable Mention, Grade VIII

Stuart White, Humphrey School
"Healthy Exercise"

First Prize, Grade VII, $2.50

Valerie Hersey, Athens School
"Baby Knows What is Good"

Honorable Mention, Grade VII

Allen Putnam, Nevin School
"Eat Us"

The regular class work proceeds as before; we are constantly trying to improve it.

MANUAL TRAINING

Report of Miss Alice L. Tucker, Supervisor of Manual Training

Although the program of work was quite similiar to that for 1919-20, we constantly endeavored to secure a greater accuracy and care.

In addition to their regular models, the seventh grade boys made toy animals, drawing their own patterns and working them out in the manual training room, thus correlating the drawing and manual training. Several of the eighth grade finished the work of the prescribed course early enough so that they made medicine cabinets, sleeve boards and various kinds of boxes. The ninth grade made many pieces of attractive and useful furniture including costumers, trays, stools, folding ironing boards, sewing tables, book cases, magazine racks, telephone stands and stools, piano benches, and blacking stands.

In the spring twenty-five of the boys visited the manufacturing department of the Paine Furniture Store and then went to a large lumber yard and saw the different processes of preparing the lumber.

This year there are so many boys in the three upper grammar grades that there is not time enough for one person to get to all the buildings, so Mr. Berry is teaching the manual training in the Hunt School.

The spirit is fine and the interest and enthusiasm which the boys show are a great inspiration and help.

SEWING

Report of Miss Helen Rowell, Supervisor of Sewing

During the past year the sewing in the grammar schools has improved both in quality and quantity. A regular course of study has been followed which advances the pupil in an easy and logical manner, with the result that in three years a girl is enabled to do good hand sewing, machine work, and simple dressmaking.

The seventh grade girls have made bags, aprons, pillow cases, Christmas gifts, and kimono's, the latter being added this year with great success. This is all hand work and the majority of girls are capable of fine sewing.

In the eighth grades the girls made handmade sewing aprons and then started machine work. It is planned to have each girl make a complete set of underwear so that she may understand the different kinds of seams, plackets, putting on belts, ruffles, and trimming. The first and simplest article is a nightgown which the girls made and trimmed in various ways. After this was completed they made bloomers, bungalow aprons, and this year nearly every girl made a simple voile blouse and some cotton skirts.

The girls of the ninth grades completed the set of underwear by making a chemise or slip which was made in several different styles, and a petticoat also made in various materials and finishes.

A year ago we started dressmaking in the ninth grades. The girls were very enthusiastic about making their own dresses, and in every case the dresses were well made, attractive, practical, and wearable. This year every ninth grade girl made either a blouse and skirt or a dress. The girls in the Hunt School did exceptionally fine work both in their hand sewing and dressmaking, each ninth grade girl having made two dresses and several three.

Along with their regular sewing the girls learned to darn stockings, darn tears in woolen dresses, put on patches, sew on buttons, and make buttonholes. They also took up a study of cotton, its growth and manufacture, kinds of cloth and their uses, which will be of value to them in later years.

At the close of schools in June each grammar school had an exhibition of sewing to give the mothers and friends of the girls an opportunity to see the work. These exhibitions were very well attended and everybody was pleased with the sewing.

SCHOOL GARDENS

Report of Miss Sarah E. Brassil, Supervisor of School Gardens

The work has been the same in all essentials as in the previous year. We are working out a course of study more like the one tried when the work was introduced, and abandoned to meet the needs of the times. In the seventh grades nature study is made the basis of the lessons, reviewing, supplementing and applying earlier teaching. In the eighth grade we take up the cycle of the plant life in annual, biennial and perennial. In the ninth grade we study planning and growing a garden, harvesting and judging crops, and storing the surplus.

There is a growing interest in the decorative side of gardening, due, perhaps, to the less urgent need of immediate food supply. Since it is as easy to teach the principles of gardening with flowers as with vegetables, that interest is being fostered. At the Shaw and Pratt Schools, the pupils are helping in the care and improvement of the grounds. In the James Humphrey district, the pupils are working out plans for home grounds; and at the Edward B. Nevin School cuttings have been rooted and set out for use later on the lawn.

Although the work under consideration was introduced as "gardening" and is still so listed, it has grown to include various forms of agriculture and home making encouraged by the Extension Department of M. A. C. This opens the way for any boy or girl who wishes to do more than the required work through a membership in one of the many clubs organized by the Junior Extension of the college.

Our garden club leads off with a Weymouth boy, who, having done the best work in Norfolk County in 1920, spent two weeks in camp at the college grounds this summer and is now in line for the state championship.

Canning naturally follows. We have held second, first and second places through three successive years. Also we held the garment making championship in 1920 (due to the excellent foundation laid in the sewing course.) We hold the bread making championship for 1921 and one girl has been commended for "good all round work."

We have a strong poultry club, the president of which is second in the country in 1920 and 1921 and we have a "small fruit" club just starting off with members in the Edward B. Nevin and Pratt Schools and with several possible members at the Hunt School, where the project is under consideration.

We have been asked to work out for eastern Massachusetts, a new project intended to interest young people in their own home problems through direct interest in their own rooms.

A distinguished feature of all this club work is that it is meant to be done at home with the approval and advice of the parents making the home the center of interest.

Weymouth products have been exhibited at the Weymouth Fair, at the Norfolk County Fair at Walpole, at Springfield and at the Boston Poultry Show, and at each place they have stood well.

On the whole it has been a busy year with, we believe, creditable results.

AGRICULTURE

Report of Mr. Charles W. Kemp, Director of Agriculture.

Our total enrolment for the year was twenty-three. The State Department of Education recommends that a department similar to ours should not run many over twenty.

Four boys graduated last June and received their diplomas. One other received a certificate for the completion of two years' work in the department. Of these five boys, four are today taking advanced work at the Agricultural College at Amherst. One is specializing in Forestry, two in Dairy Manufactures, and one in Poultry Husbandry. The fifth boy is running a retail milk proposition of his own. Each day he furnishes milk in half-pint bottles to the High School lunch counter. This allows the High School students to have fresh milk of good quality, not opened after being bottled until the student lifts the cap at his or her lunch period.

This year the boys have carried on some very good projects and in several cases of considerable size. The largest individual project consisted of a one and one-sixth acre garden and two hundred fifty day old chicks. He made as a return for his labor, over and above all expenses, five hundred fifteen dollars. This boy is one of those mentioned as taking advanced work this year at Amherst.

Ten boys in the department have poultry projects. The total number of chicks bought or raised was fifteen hundred, making an average of one hundred fifty per boy. The largest individual flock was two hundred fifty and the smallest seventy-five. The largest flock of pullets being wintered over by one boy is ninety.

As usual some of the boys have shown birds at the fairs. This year birds were exhibited at the Weymouth Fair and the Boston Poultry Show. The following table shows the distribution and value of money prizes received during the year, not including forty-seven ribbons won:-

Exhibit	Vegetables	Fruit	Poultry	General Exhibit	Total
Value of Prizes	$26.50	$7.00	$50.50	$10.00	$94.00

Eight boys having garden projects had a total of seven acres under cultivation. The largest single lot was carried on as a joint project by two of the boys, having one and one-half acres planted to sweet-corn, string and shell beans.

The largest cash return on any single garden above expenses, not counting the boy's labor, was two hundred sixty dollars, made mainly on sweet corn retailed to neighboring families.

I make a point during the year of taking the various divisions to places carrying on the type of agriculture being studied. The following are some of the places visited during the past year:-

PLACE	OBJECT OF VISIT
Mr. Thomas Nettles, S. Weymouth	To see registered Poland China Pigs.
Thomas Chisholm, S. Weymouth (Former Student)	To see milking machine and ob- serve silo filling.
Mr. H. H. I. Smith, Weymouth Heights	To observe coal and oil burning brooders, brooding chicks.
Arnold Arboretum, Forest Hills	To observe shrubbery and land- scape garden effects.
Weymouth Ayrshire Farm N. Weymouth	To judge pure Ayrshire stock
Charmada Farm, S. Weymouth	To observe dairy barn construc- tion and to see registered Ayr- shire stock
Wampatuck Farm, Canton.	To see milking Shorthorn cattle of show quality
Bradley's Horse Stable	To see Arabian Horses.

Personally I feel that a great deal of valuable information was received by the boys through these visits, and I would like to publicly thank all who have so kindly given their time and allowed us the freedom of their places.

The work of the year has been much facilitated by the hearty cooperation and valuable suggestions of the Superintendent of Schools and the Principal of the High School.

GENERAL

I wish to call attention to the fact that for the first time in the history of the town we have passed the three thousand mark in actual school attendance, the total enrollment amounting to 3,087 and the average membership to 2,873.8. As can easily be imagined it has been difficult to arrange for the schooling of this increased number of children, particularly with the constant change from Continuation to regular schools of the pupils between the ages of fourteen and sixteen. It has been necessary to take from the attics and storerooms of the buildings all the extra furniture, repair it, and place it in use, so that today we are faced with the condition of having practically every available seat in use.

The schools were in session one hundred eighty-six days in the grades and one hundred eighty-seven days in the High School, as compared with one hundred eighty days for 1920 and one hundred seventy-three days for 1919.

We have had fewer changes in the teaching force than for the last few years and I am glad to report that there has been a distinct improvement in the ease with which trained teachers can be secured.

In conclusion I wish to thank the committee, teachers, and the community for their hearty support throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted

PARKER T. PEARSON
Superintendent of Schools

ODE OF THE CLASS OF 1921

Words and Music by Rufus Nelson Palmer

Blue above and depth below her
 On the highest crag of all
 Sits the eagle, near her aerie
 With its eaglets large and small;
 Eaglets trained in art of living,
 Trained in all the eagles art.
 Now the time has come to leave them
 Rightly taught to take their part.

From their nest the eaglets sally,
 One to make successful flight,
 While a second earthward flutters
 Although he tries with all his might;
 And a third whose wings are weaker
 Than the one who first has flown
 Neither is success nor failure;
 Yet he bravely holds his own.

So shall we in life's great battle
 Work and strive to do the right;
 Some to win and some to falter
 Like the eaglets in their flight.
 But, if we do all things rightly
 In so far as we have strength,
 We shall win the prize that's due us;
 We shall gain success at length.

Thus we go to meet our future,
 Be that future what it may,
 For we know that hov'ring o'er us,
 Guiding us along our way,
 Alma Mater, like the eagle,
 Watches both the weak and strong,
 And with that dear Alma Mater
 Fares the God of all the throng.

REPORT OF TOWN COUNSEL

Boston, January 16, 1922.

Gentlemen:

On January 1, 1921 there were pending against the Town the following suits:

Harold A. Billings for damages alleged to have been caused by blasting on Front Street.

Simon Delorey for alleged damages to mowing land in consequence of condition of street drain.

Clarence A. Wright for personal injuries and property damage alleged to have been caused by a collision between motor cycle and a rope stretched across Pleasant Street at the time of the Red Cross parade.

Gustavus B. Bates for alleged damages to land on Pleasant Street, because of water being drained from the street upon his land.

Annie W. Bates for damages to her property on Washington Street, alleged to have been caused by turning off the water supply.

County Commissioners, petition for apportionment of the cost of Monatiquot River Bridge.

The following proceedings have been commenced against the Town during the year 1921:

Old Colony Gas Company; petition for abatement of 1920 assessment.

Ulysses L. Burns, petition for assessment of damages for taking of land for play ground at Lovell's Corner and entrance thereto.

During the year the suit of Clarence A. Wright has been disposed of by agreement. The petition of Ulysses L. Burns has been disposed of by agreement. Hearings are now in process before Commissioners appointed by the Superior Court, for the determination of the apportionment of the cost of Monatiquot River Bridge. Proceedings by the Old Colony Gas Company has been assigned for trial for the February term of the Superior Court at Dedham.

During the year the Legislature passed and the Governor approved what is known as a Representative Town Meeting Act applicable to the Town of Weymouth, which act provides for the transaction of the business coming before its town meetings, by representatives elected by the voters from the several precincts.

During the year there have been several Land Court cases in which the Town has been interested, to the extent of the determination of the location of street lines and access as to tide water, and these have all been disposed of to the satisfaction of the Town.

The Town has been represented at the hearings before the State Department of Public Health, seeking to have the Massachusetts Oil Refining Company, located in Braintree, so conduct its business as not to emit noxious odors and allowing the escape of oil along the Weymouth shores. The State Department of Health has ordered the Company to suspend certain of its operations, and has suspended the operation of such order from time to time pending the installation of new equipment and appliances. The present status is, that the order of suspension is now suspended until January 31, 1922, at which time there will be another hearing held by the State Department of Health.

Yours respectfully,

WILLIAM J. HOLBROOK,
Town Counsel.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF SELECTMEN

To the Inhabitants of the Town of Weymouth:

With the more or less exhaustive reports of the principal departments of the Town government, it seems a useless repetition for this report to treat on the subjects already reported in detail.

At the annual Town election held March 14, 1921, the following were elected selectmen: William H. Cowing, Alfred W. Hastings, Frederick Humphrey, William B. Dasha, Theron L. Tirrell.

The board met on the morning of March 15th, and after having taken their oaths of office before Clayton B. Merchant, Town Clerk, proceeded to organize as follows: Wm. H. Cowing, chairman; Alfred W. Hastings, secretary.

On March 21st, a joint meeting was held with the Water Commissioners for the purpose of electing a Town Accountant. Emerson R. Dizer was elected to fill this important position.

Death of Russell B. Worster, Sealer of Weights and Measures.

It is with deep regret that we are called upon to report the death of Russell B. Worster who has faithfully served the Town for a number of years as Sealer of Weights and Measures.

The printing of this year's Town Reports was awarded to the Newburyport Herald Press, their's being the lowest bid, 4500 copies at $4.90 per page. Other bids ranged from $7.40 per page to $6.24 per page.

WM. H. COWING,
Chairman.

REPORT OF MOTHS SUPERINTENDENT

So. Weymouth, January 10, 1922.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen of the Town of Weymouth.
Gentlemen:

Herein please find my report for the year 1921.

Having made a somewhat superficial inspection of conditions in the town as a whole, and a closer one in the small part which we have thus far covered in treating the nests, we find conditions better than for some years past. Now while some of this improvement may be due to natural causes, we must remember that the winter of 1920 and 1921 was very mild and supposedly favorable to the moths, but it was surely favorable to us in our work, and when it came to spraying, the weather was such that we lost very little time, and when we played arsenate of lead through the nozzle it struck the foliage and stuck there.

I am very glad to report very great improvement as regards the Brown Tail Moths. Last year from Nov. 1st, 1920 to April 1st, 1921 we cut, counted and burned more than thirty thousand nests. Three thousand two hundred and sixty on Idlewell alone. We are not counting nests this year, but thus far are finding comparatively few. Our equipment is in fair condition, but we will have to paint the sprayers and buy some hose.

Respectfully submitted,

C. L. MERRITT,
Superintendent.

REPORT OF TREE WARDEN

So. Weymouth, January 10, 1922.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen of the Town of Weymouth.
Gentlemen:

Herein please find my report for the year 1921.

The appropriation of $750 voted for the care and preservation of shade trees, augmented by the sum of $100 voted as salary to the Tree Warden, and as for the past twelve years, donated by him to the department, has been spent more for the care and preservation of the traveling public, in the removal of eighteen large trees, which were, because of their location, or death and decay, a menace to public safety. We have also removed a lot of dead wood from our large trees, and some large live limbs which were encroaching on private property. Owing to the lack of funds much of this needed work is as yet undone.

Respectfully submitted,

C. L. MERRITT,
Tree Warden.

REPORT OF FOREST WARDEN

East Weymouth, January 8, 1922.

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen.
Gentlemen:

I hereby submit my report as Forest Warden for the year ending December 31st, 1921.

During the year 1921 we had lots of dry weather which made lots of grass fires, therefore the Forest Department has cost a lot of money. About 700 Fire Permits have been issued this year and a total of 124 calls have been answered.

Deputies appointed by P. W. Wolfe, Forest Warden—John Q. Hunt, Henry W. Philips, Walter W. Pratt, James J. Carley.

In July John Q. Hunt resigned and Harold W. Hawes was appointed in his place.

Respectfully,

PHILIP W. WOLFE,
Forest Warden.

REPORT OF BURIAL AGENT

Weymouth, January 2, 1922.

To the Honorable, the Board of Selectmen, of Weymouth.

I have the pleasure to report that there have been no burials of soldiers, sailors, widows or mothers under my direction during the year 1921.

Respectfully submitted,

WALDO TURNER
Burial Agent for Indigent Soldiers, Sailors and Widows

REPORT OF THE OVERSEERS OF THE POOR

While the number of inmates at the Town Home in Braintree has decreased so that it has reached the lowest point of which we have any record, that of nine inmates, (records show that in 1855 there were 46 inmates aided in Town Home), the number of people aided throughout the Town has increased—about 240 being aided on January 1, 1922.

Weymouth pays Braintree $7.00 a week for boarding its inmates at the Braintree Town Home. We have no reason to think that they are not properly cared for. The Town Farm is still under lease to Mr. Parker Condrick.

There is a large call for aid on account of unemployment, fuel being the principal need. Some number of families are in need because of desertion by the father of the family. This is a very regrettable condition as it shows a growing lack of moral consciousness.

Below will be found some details which may be welcome to those citizens who are interested in the poor, and some of the expenditure of the appropriation of $30,081.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NEEDS OF AN ALMSHOUSE IN THE TOWN OF WEYMOUTH

East Weymouth, December 23, 1922.

At the annual meeting of the Town of Weymouth held March 7, 1921 it was voted:

"That a committee of ten be appointed by the Moderator to consider the needs of an Almshouse in this town and to confer with the town of Hingham and other surrounding towns upon the advisability of jointly supporting an Almshouse."

The committee was duly appointed and consisted of the following named persons: Henry A. Day, John H. Tower, Henry P. Tilden, Robert S. Hoffman, Edward W. Hunt, Joseph Kelley, Theron L. Tirrell, Matthew O. Dowd, J. L. Bicknell and Bradford Hawes.

The committee organized by the choice of Bradford Hawes as chairman and J. L. Bicknell as secretary. With possibly two or three exceptions, the several members entered upon their duties without any fixed preconceived opinions either in favor or in opposition to the project, and were therefore entirely open to conviction.

We have had six meetings and have endeavored to give the subject full and unbiased consideration.

At an early meeting the overseers of the poor of this town were present by invitation and furnished the committee with information in regard to the affairs of their department, especially as they related to the maintenance of our poor in the Braintree Home.

We had one meeting on the town farm property and considered the available sites for a house thereon. It was considered that if the town were to build upon this property the best location for an Almshouse would be on the hill north of the barn.

At a later meeting the Overseers of the Poor of Weymouth and of all the surrounding towns, having been informed of the instructions given by the town to this committee, were invited to be present. No response was made to this invitation except by our own board and that of Hingham. The Overseers of the Poor of Hingham were individually of the opinion that, in view of the small number maintained by them in their house, it would be to the financial advantage of Hingham to co-operate with Weymouth in maintaining an Almshouse, but they felt confident that their town would oppose the project if it contemplated the caring for their poor in another town. They further said that they could never feel sure that the United States Government would not sooner or later take the remainder of their Almshouse property including the house.

The fact that the Braintree Overseers of the Poor declined to receive from Weymouth bed-ridden inmates, or to keep those already there when they become bed ridden places upon our Overseers an unpleasant burden which, it seems to us, they ought not to be asked to bear, as it is sometimes very difficult to provide at short notice for such cases, to say nothing of the inhumanity of bundling off to Tewksbury or Bridgewater, to die among strangers, our dependent wards.

The number of the poor aided or supported out of the house has materially increased during the last few years, with a correspondingly heavy increase in the costs of maintaining this class. We believe that this condition could be remedied to a great extent if we had an institution of our own.

Your committee has endeavored to consider carefully all the conditions with which we are confronted in relation to the care of our poor, and as a result of such consideration we are convinced that the town should build and maintain an Almshouse without further consideration of a joint establishment with other towns, and we so recommend.

We do not advise the erection at this time of a house larger than what will accommodate the number of inmates which we may reasonably expect within the next few years. We would however recommend the construction to be upon a plan which will admit of making additions when such shall become necessary.

Your committee doubts the advisability of running a large farm in connection with the house but would retain sufficient land to produce the necessary vegetables for house use and provender for one or two horses and what cows are required for furnishing milk for the house.

If the town votes to erect an Almshouse at the present time we recommend that the appropriation for the same shall not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000.00).

Respectfully submitted,

J. LEONARD BICKNELL,
Secretary.

BRADFORD HAWES,
Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON SOLDIERS MEMORIAL

The Honorable Board of Selectmen;
Gentlemen:

We respectfully submit to you the following report:

In accordance with the vote of the Town, this committee was appointed to look into the desirability of a memorial of some description in honor of, and dedicated to the veterans of our several wars.

After careful consideration of the different kinds of memorials we have come to the conclusion that the most practical and lasting would be a Memorial Town Hall embodying therein a memorial hall which would ever be a source of patriotic education to our children, suitable quarters for the veterans who so willingly done their part for the preservation of our land, a permanent home for offices for the Town Officials, an auditorium where our Town meetings may be held, and where the people of the Town may gather on different occasions.

We were very much aided in our work by the complete investigation of the former committee whose work was very thorough indeed, also by the courtesies of Mr. Harold Field Kellogg, architect for the former committee, who very generously gave of his time and knowledge in preparing for us a new set of plans, specifications and estimates on the old and new set which we are filling with the report to you. We therefore recommend that the Town raise and appropriate the sum of $175,000.00 for the purchase of land and the erection thereon, a Memorial Building similiar to those described in the plans, or to take any other action relative thereto.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF THE TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

The Committee appointed by the Moderator in accordance with authorization at the Special Town Meeting of June 24, 1921, to act cooperatively with representatives of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company in conducting a transportation system for the Town of Weymouth, report as follows:

The Transportation Committee organized with A. C. Heald as Chairman and Stanley T. Torrey as Secretary.

The Town Accountant reported as available for expenses for the ensuing year the sum of $15,375.42.

Meetings have been held from time to time as required, and transportation affairs have been analyzed quite thoroughly by the Committee.

Conditions existing in town are too well known to demand any extended comment.

The greater part of the lines of the Weymouth Subdivision of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company have been put in good working condition, one man cars have been operated successfully, and in a general way the requirements of the Committee have been met.

Improved service in some directions has been sought, but up to the present time it has not been possible to operate at as low cost as is necessary in order to avoid a deficit as that reported at the end of the first period of the second year.

After serious consideration of the matter of unlicensed jitney competition, it is the unanimous opinion of the Committee that it will be very difficult indeed to operate a street railway system in the Town of Weymouth on a profitable basis as long as unlicensed jitney competition is permitted. However, owing to deferred co-operation on the part of Town Authorities, the situation remains much the same as at the beginning of the season.

The accompanying condensed schedule of revenue and expenditures for the period ending November 30, 1921, show a deficit of $8,281.40, which amount has already been sent to the Trustees of the Eastern Massachusetts Railway Company.

Detailed report of operation and copy of agreement under which operations are being conducted have been filed with the Clerk of the Selectmen.

COMMITTEE ON TOWN HISTORY

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen

When the town at the last annual meeting decided not to appropriate any money to pay for the publication of the Town History it naturally delayed the progress of the work to some extent. but we have had so much encouragement from public-spirited citizens that I feel that the gratitude of the Weymouth Historical Society should be publically expressed to all who by word or deed have aided this committee.

Work on the History has been carried on through the year and successful results have been achieved and much new matter added.

We have asked this year for an appropriation of $800.00 from the town, and this amount is all we shall ever need to ask for, because, through the liberality of one of our members, money enough for the publication on the work has been promised, and within a short time the volumes will be printed, and when that time comes, the identity of this liberal hearted citizen will be made known.

The scope of the History will be voluminous and varied, and will contain articles on "The Early Settlers", "Early Town Records", "Origin of the Early Roads", "Military History", "Commercial Interests", "Ecclesiastical and Educational History", "The Geology of Weymouth", "Doctors, Lawyers, and Prominent Men", "Fire, Police and Water Departments", "Lodges and Societies", "Legislation", "Music and Musicians", "Weymouth Folk-Lore", "Century-old Houses", an exhaustive Genealogy of Weymouth people, and much other interesting and valuable matter, interspersed with many rare illustrations.

PARK COMMISSIONERS' REPORT

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:

• Lovell's Corner Playground.

During the year of 1921, all of the money spent from the regular appropriation was put into permanent improvements. We now have a stone building 10x12 with cement floor and partition with rough plumbing done, for which the town has expended less than $335.00, with $75.00, furnished by Lovell's Corner Improvement Society, $25.00 from the Young People's Club, and $10.00 from other sources. The ball field has been taken care of by the players; others have furnished sand for boxes and teeter boards. We will need $325.00 to finish plumbing, and would like some equipment for children.

Great Hill Park.

Nothing has been done with this property.

Bayley Green

Grading and seeding to the level of the curbing has been completed, and some of the old shrubbery removed. Some low growing shrubs should be planted, and owing to new seeding this park should have special care next season.

Beals' Park

This park, as in the past, has received considerable attention from the Commissioners. Besides the regular care, about 235 feet of curbing has been put around the border of the pond, and to complete this work and remove the mud, about $400.00 will be required.

Webb Park:

The conditions of Webb Park have been the same as last year in regards to the demand of the citizens for its use. The convenient station has been practically finished with the exception of a few minor details.

The financial conditions of Webb Park for the year $1,562.01 made up in the following manner

REPORT OF THE ELECTRIC LIGHT COMMITTEE

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen:-

The Electric Light Committee respectfully submit the following report.

At the Annual Town Meeting held in March $16,000 was appropriated for electric lighting.

We have spent during the year $15,868.21. Our contract runs out April 1st. and quite a number of lamps were not installed until late in the summer which makes the expenditures smaller than the appropriation.

Our contract expires Apr. 1st 1922 and to make sure that the number of lamps installed was correct, the committee and a representative from the Weymouth Light and Power Co. checked and rechecked every lamp in town with the following result:

869, 40 c.p.; 9, 80 c.p.; 6, 100 c.p.; 21, 250 c.p.; Columbia Sq. 4, 100 c.p.; Jackson Sq. 6, 250 c.p.

If no differences arise we feel certain that the Company will renew the contract for 5 years at the same price, which is: 40 c.p. $16.20 per year. 60 c.p.; $20.25 per year; 80 c.p.; $24.00 per year; 100 c.p.; $30.00 per year; 250 c.p.; $70.00 per year. Columbia Sq. $120.00; Jackson Sq. $225.00 per year.

With the number of lights installed the cost would be $16,237.96.

The committee recommend that $17,000 be appropriated for the ensuing year.

The calls for new lights are numerous and we could use the balance to install lights, if the Town sees fit to appropriate the amount asked for.

With regret we announce the death of Russell B. Worster, who has been a faithful member of the committee for seventeen years.

To fill the vacancy a joint meeting of the Selectmen and electric light committee was held and Joseph Kelley was elected.

REPORT OF THE TOWN ENGINEER

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen of the Town of Weymouth:

Gentlemen:-

I submit herewith my fifteenth annual report on the town survey work, and a summary of other surveying or engineering work done during the year 1921.

The term "town survey work" might perhaps be more accurately defined as the revision and maintenance of the system of assessor's sheets (sixty-five in number) which, with the lithograph map of the town published early in 1916, was the ultimate result of the survey commenced in 1907 and completed in 1915.

Since then the original tracings of these sheets have been revised to April first of each year and a complete set of prints furnished the Assessors at the completion of each revision.

In addition I have endeavored to eliminate or make clear each year in so far as additional information could be obtained and the appropriation would permit, as many of the missing or obscure boundaries or names of owners as possible. While the number of such is small as compared with the total, they are an ever present factor, and are sometimes increased through negligent or faulty conveyances.

Costs governing the work such as labor, fares and materials have remained practically the same as the year previous, and the number of transfers has also been approximately the same in 1921 as in 1920.

Each transfer, together with the probate records, are copied; the plans at the registry of deeds or filed at the land court are copied, or otherwise obtained; and all used in the revision work.

The appropriation for this work the past year was $1,500, and although this was not sufficient to allow new tracings to be made to replace several completely worn through in places from repeated erasures (made in revising same), I do not think the amount should be increased, and I would recommend to the town a similar appropriation of $1,500, for 1922.

Under the recent law allowing no credits, the sale of prints by the town will have to be provided for in some new way. These are intended to be sold at cost but generally the aggregate amount received, as compared with the cost, shows a slight profit for the total sold during any year. The profit to the town the past year (not including the sale of lithograph maps) was $8.35.

At the annual meeting the town appropriated $300. for the purchase and setting of stone bounds to mark important street angles and later the Selectmen voted that this should be spent under my direction. It is necessary to stake out all points where bounds are to be set; but in several cases a saving was effected by utilizing street points put in for other work, or for other purposes. Thirty bounds were set and I have on hand, belonging to the town, twenty-four bounds for future use.

I would recommend a similar appropriation for the coming year to be used on streets already laid out.

The establishment of a system of benches throughout the town, recommended in previous reports, seems to me constantly increasing need, and one that should be considered by your Board.

There has been considerable routine and new work done the past year. I would mention:-layout, plan and description of several new streets; widening of Bicknell Square, North Weymouth; takings, with plan and descriptions, by the town for school purposes; plan and descriptions of lands to be deeded to the town; street lines given at the request of abutting owners; profiles of streets, gutters, and locations for drains; staking and grades for drains and catch basins; investigation of street lines as shown on plans presented to the land court for registration in which a notice was sent to the town by the land court; and the survey of the site of several alleged accidents and preparation of plans for court purposes.

Among new work was the preparation of precinct maps in triplicate as required by law; topographical plan of location, design, staking and grades for curbs around Newton's Pond at Beals Park, North Weymouth; and recently a seven day tally and schedule of the Fore River Bridge motor and vehicle traffic for use at the Monatiquot River Bridge hearing now in progress.

This covers substantially the work done in 1921.

I wish in closing to express as heretofore my thanks to your Board, to other town officials, and to the citizens of Weymouth in general for any and all assistance given and courtesy shown me or my assistants in our work throughout the town.

Respectfully submitted

RUSSELL H. WHITING
Civil Engineer.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF FIRE ALARMS

To the Board of Engineers Fire Dept:

Dear Sirs:-

Following is the report on the Fire Alarm System for the year 1921.

During the year there were 104 bell alarms, 87 of these for fires, the remainder being test alarms, lost child calls and no school alarms.

There has been much trouble on the system due to both depreciating batteries and weak overhead construction, there being many miles of wire, almost completely rusted away, which should be replaced.

The batteries must be replaced right away with new ones in order to insure proper working of the system. Also I recommend as much replacement of old wire with new as can be accomplished in the year 1922.

An appropriation of $1,000 will no more than cover the immediate needs of the system for 1922.

Respectfully submitted

C. F. COOLIDGE

Supt. of Fire Alarms.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF STREETS

To the Honorable Board of Selectmen.

Gentlemen:

I herewith submit my sixth annual report of the Street Department for the year ending December 31, 1921.

The work accomplished the past year has made a decided improvement in our street system and if like appropriations are made for the next few years the cost of maintenance and general repairs should be materially lower, although it is difficult to forecast the demands for new street layouts or the amount of traffic our present streets will be subjected to.

Present building operations in the north part of the town indicate that several new streets will be needed very soon and it would seem advisable for the town to adopt some regulations regarding the acceptance of new streets.

Material and labor costs are still high although not as high as during 1920. There has been a noticeable improvement in the efficiency of labor and the introduction of labor saving machinery has helped to keep down the costs.

Special Appropriations

A larger amount of money was appropriated at the last March meeting for special work than for several years.

Twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) was raised by bond issue for permanent construction, continuing the policy adopted in 1919. This money was expended on North Street extending from Thomas's Corner to Church Street, a distance of 4,405 feet making a total of 10,017 square yards. The type of construction was bituminous penetration and the method of construction as follows: The old road surface was excavated wherever necessary to allow for six inches of pavement, this sub-grade was shaped to correspond to the finished grade and thoroughly rolled. Four inches of crushed stone (2 in. size) was then uniformly spread and rolled, the voids being filled with stone dust or sand; upon this base course two inches of similar stone was spread and lightly rolled, after which one and a half gallons of Tarvia X to the square yard was applied, heated to 275 degrees. This course was then rolled and about one inch of inch stone spread and thoroughly rolled. A seal coat of Bermudez Asphalt, one half gallon to the square yard was applied heated to 300 degrees. This was then covered lightly with pea stone and thoroughly rolled. From Thomas's Corner to Neck Street the road was made 24 feet wide and from there on the average width was 20 feet making the traveled way much wider than previously. A catch basin was constructed at the corner of Neck Street, another near Poland's Turn-out, another opposite the property of Mr. Bridges and one at the corner of East Street thereby improving the drainage conditions.

The Eastern Massachusetts St. R. R., relaid their track conforming to a new grade and paid $125.00 towards the construction of a concrete curb and gutter on the hill between Pierce Court and Neck Street, also for the construction between the tracks at the junctions of Pearl Street.

The surplus material excavated from the old surface was used to good advantage in resurfacing Leonard Road, and parts of Green, East, Lincoln, Curtis and Lovell Streets also in the construction of Babcock Avenue and Rosalind Road.

The sidewalk adjacent to the road was improved and the greater part of it resurfaced with stone dust. A large Elm tree near Neck Street was removed to allow a wider road surface, also a tree near Poland's Turn-out was cut down as it was in the middle of the sidewalk. The cost of this work was $19,787.11.

Babcock Avenue: A new layout extending from Birchbrow Road to Bartlett Street was next constructed. $800.00 was appropriated for this short street and it was hardly enough as a large amount of filling was required. Six inches of gravel was used for surfacing and a sidewalk built on the south side, also a catch basin and drain constructed.

Lovell Street: Sidewalk, for which $300.00 was appropriated was built for $236.23 making a decided improvement to that part of Lovell Street which runs at right angles to Neck Street.

Bicknell Square: Widening for which $400.00 was appropriated was next completed but owing to the unexpected cost of taking care of the drainage problem the amount was insufficient to complete the work and $250.00 was appropriated from the reserve fund to complete the job. A concrete curb was constructed according to the new line, a distance of 137 feet and a guard rail built along the street line. A new catch basin was built also a drain and manhole. That portion of the road that required building due to the widening was constructed with crushed stone similar to North Street.

Rosalind Road, which extends from Bridge Street to Evans Street, a new lay out accepted at a special town meeting and for which $800 was appropriated was surfaced with six inches of gravel and sidewalks constructed where needed.

Union Avenue:—$2,000.00 was appropriated at the March meeting to macadamize Union Avenue and East Street or to make suitable repairs. It was obvious that this amount would not do both streets if a stone road was to be constructed and that it would be poor policy to expend $2,000.00 for graveling for the sake of doing both streets as the graveling would not last long. It was therefore decided to build Union Avenue with crushed stone. Practically the same methods were used as in the construction of North Street, except that Texaco Asphalt was used entirely instead of Tarvia X and Bermudez Asphalt. The work extended from Commercial Street to the railroad crossing a distance of about 1000 feet and was built 18 feet wide making about 2000 square yards. The sidewalk was improved and two trees removed and a drain near the railroad crossing relaid with corrugated iron pipe. East Street, especially from the Art Leather factory to North Street should be resurfaced and the Commercial Street end is also in bad condition.

Emerson Street.—A new lay-out running at right angles off East Street was constructed as far as the appropriation of $500.00 would allow. Very little gravel was needed for this job as good gravel was found in the cuts which were greater than the fills. The job needs about $300.00 more to complete it and a sidewalk built on one side.

On Filomena Street, a short street extending from Broad Street to Madison Street, in the rear of Alden, Walker and Wilds factory, $200.00 was expended. About half of the appropriation was used to build a retaining wall on the Madison Street end and the balance for grading the worse parts of the roadway. The condition of this street is still bad as there is at present no provision to take care of the surface water.

Union Street: $15,000.00 was appropriated to complete resurfacing Union Street to the Rockland line, the County agreeing to pay one half the cost. The same form and method of construction was followed as in the construction of North Street. At it was late in the season before this work was started it was impossible to complete the remaining 600 feet to the Rockland line. 2400 feet of roadway, 20 feet wide was constructed at a cost of $10,277.88 leaving more than enough balance to complete the work which will be done next year. $400.00 was appropriated to relay a drain on High Street. A careful survey of this problem was made and it showed that the greater portion of the present drain is on private property and that $400.00 would nowhere near cover the cost of the job. Property owners concerned in the project were consulted with regard to paying for the construction of that portion on private land but no definite arrangement was made. I would advise that the appropriation be held over until a definite arrangement can be obtained from the abutters.

Oiling

The item of street oiling is the largest item of expense that comes out of our regular highway appropriation and one that the average citizen does not realize is so large. $20,132.35 was expended this past year for oiling and there is a demand for extending this work. It is certain that streets tarred or oiled could not be kept in as good a condition any other way unless permanent construction was made and it is also certain that the Town can do but a limited amount of new construction each year.

The increase in cost each year is due principally to the fact that more streets are treated each year, several miles more were oiled this year than ever before. There is certainly a demand for increasing the work and it all comes down to what the tax-payers are willing to pay for. Ten years ago Weymouth did not consider oiling streets at all but very few would be willing to go back to those conditions. During the past year 79,021 gallons of Tarvia B, 7819 gallons of Texaco 45 per cent. Asphalt and 4000 gallons of non-asphaltic oil were used for this work.

Equipment and Department Buildings

The Austin Wagon Loader purchased late in the fall of 1919 and partly paid for out of this year's appropriation proved a valuable addition and was used to good advantage in connection with our new work as it is possible to load with this machine a truck with crushed stone or gravel in less than five minutes.

A new two horse road machine was purchased for $330 to replace one that had become worn out. The Monarch tractor purchased late in 1919 for snow work did not prove entirely satisfactory on snow but did good work during the summer scraping and moving excavation with a road machine. This tractor has been replaced by a Cleveland tractor of greater power and present tests indicate that it will do great work especially in connection with snow plowing.

Last year I recommended trading in our old Netco truck for a new one but the matter was not approved by the Appropriation Committee. This truck has seen nearly six years of hard usage and the repair bills for the past year of $747.02 clearly indicate that it is not an economical proposition. The other Netco truck was operated at a very low figure and has given excellent service and is in good condition having been recently overhauled and painted. The Ford runabout used by your Superintendent should be traded in this year and I am thoroughly convinced that a Ford is not an economical car for the department.

The old 10 ton roller was not used at all last year as the expense of making necessary repairs did not seem to warrant the outlay. I would recommend that this roller be traded in for a tandem or sidewalk roller as our Maintenance roller is in excellent shape and capable of taking care of the greater part of our work.

The department buildings on Commercial street are in good repair but need to be painted this year. The crusher situated at the Plymouth Quarries did excellent work and was operated almost continually from early summer until the middle of December, outside of needing new jaws and a few minor repairs the plant is in good condition. A new Champion snow plow for truck use was purchased for $264 and did excellent work.

Snow Removal

Until the latter part of February but little money was expended for this work and it looked as if we would get through the winter without much expense, but on February 20 occurred the heaviest fall of snow recorded in twenty-two years. The snow plows on the trucks did fine work but were not able to keep all the main streets open as the wind drifted the snow in about as fast as it was plowed out. Pleasant street was kept open so that the jitney hardly missed a trip whereas all other car lines were tied up. This storm cost over $4,000. With the present equipment for handling snow with two trucks and a tractor it is safe to say that all the main streets can be kept open unless an exceptionally heavy storm occurs.

Crusher Plant

The stone crusher located at the Plymouth Quarries produced more stone this year than ever before and at a substantial saving to the Town. The price of grout bought from the Plymouth Quarries was increased from ten to twenty cents a ton but at that the cost of production was but $1.27 a ton. 4,149.04 tons of stone were produced and distributed as follows: Union street 1018.81 tons, North street 2106.25 tons, Union avenue 335.97 tons, general repairs 201.49 tons, sidewalks 198.87 tons, Bicknell Square 30.55 tons, to individual 207.10 tons and on hand 50 tons. The cost of production was $5,244.61 divided as follows: Labor $3,517.72, electricity $674.69, repairs and supplies $418.19 and for grout $634.01. It was necessary to buy considerable stone in addition to the above as we were unable to produce it fast enough to properly carry on the work.

General Repairs and Maintenance

Under this heading comes the second largest item of expense and it is difficult to innumerate all of the different pieces of work done. The amount expended was $18,091.64 divided as follows: Labor and teams, $12,867.58, sand and gravel $385.11, supplies and repairs $659.13, tarvia and patching material $1065.52, coal for roller $540.73, freight and express $42.45, truck hire $817.56 and for blacksmith work $180.94. The principal jobs consisted of graveling Manatiquot street, Howard street the entire length, considerable work on Lincoln, Curtis and Lovell streets was done due to heavy washouts, Green street was greatly improved by graveling and extensive patching was done on Neck, River and Parnell streets. Portions of Commercial, Middle, High, Broad, Pleasant and Water streets were broken up with the steam roller, scarified and surfaced treated with screened gravel and minor repairs made to many side streets. Essex street from Broad to Spring was resurfaced with gravel and work done on that portion beyond the Town Farm. In Ward Three, work was confined to general maintenance and small repairs. This portion of the Town is the least expensive to keep in repair due to the large amount of permanent construction and the number of streets surface treated with Tarvia. A portion of Summer street north of Federal should be surface treated and the Tarvia continued to Federal street.

In Wards Four and Five considerable work was done on Park and Oak streets as they received heavy travel due to the closing of Washington street from the Weymouth line to Queen Ann's Corner, Hingham. Parts of Pleasant, Union, Hollis and Middle streets were scarified with the roller and surface treated. Repairs were made to Columbian, Park Avenue, Pond, Randolph and West streets by graveling and rolling. Constant patching with tar and pea stone was done at intervals throughout the season on all tar treated streets. Considerable work was done under this heading for individual for which the Town received payment but is credited to Private Work account.

Under this general heading are several items that are carried as separate accounts in the budget as shown in the Summary of Expenditures, namely Street Cleaning, Gravel Sidewalks, Signs and Fences and Drains and Catch-basins. The amount expended for street cleaning was $2,860.36 being less than for several years, due principally to the fact that there was but little money available for Fall cleaning. More money was spent this year on gravel sidewalks than for several years.

Stone dust was used extensively to resurface sidewalks and good results obtained. A new sidewalk was built on Common street and several other walks reshaped. More money should be spent on this work as gravel sidewalks in all parts of the Town are in poor condition as a whole. Several new street signs and guide boards were erected, two large guide boards at the junction of Washington and Main streets receiving much favorable comment from the traveling public. There are quite a number of fences that will need repairing next season.

$1,383.57 was expended on drains and catch-basins, several new catch-basins were built but the chief expense was in keeping them clean, due to the number of heavy storms. A new catch-basin and drain was constructed to take care of the surface water on Granite street opposite the property of Mary J. Condrick. There still remains quite a job to properly take care of the water in this vicinity, several conferences with parties interested did not produce a satisfactory solution.

Recommendations

That a larger sum of money be appropriated for general repairs and oiling and that the policy of raising $20,000 for permanent construction be continued, the work to extend on North street, from the point where we left off this year to Central Square, thus completing a permanent road from North Weymouth to East Weymouth.

That more money be expended for gravel sidewalks and that a special appropriation be made for permanent walks. The purchase of a new truck and the trading in of the ten ton roller are urgently needed.

The matter of acquiring sand or gravel pits is one that I have recommended for several years and it is hoped that some action may be taken this year.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE TUFTS LIBRARY

The forty-third annual report of the Board of Trustees of the Tufts Library is respectfully submitted as follows:

The library was open 301 days during the year, with a circulation of 67,741 volumes—8,582 more than that of last year—making a daily average of 225 plus. Of this number, 28,782 volumes circulated through the delivery stations and the schools. The largest number issued on any day was 568 on February 23, and the smallest number was 59 on October 3. Other statistics are given in Appendix A.

Collections of books were placed in 8 school buildings. The record shows that 8,001 volumes were circulated through the schools, in addition to the 723 books borrowed by 34 teachers on their special cards. The teachers' record shows a gratifying increase over last year.

Student's cards were issued to 100 appreciative borrowers, to whom were lent 2,304 books. Only five persons requested Vacation cards, upon which but 75 books were circulated.

The applications for borrower's cards number 6,172 since the last registration; 527 of these were received this year, an increase of 20 over the previous year.

The lost books number 83; 6 of these were paid for by the borrowers; 15 were burned because of contagious diseases; 229 books were discarded as unfit for further circulation; 3 books, previously reported lost, were found.

The total number of accessions at the close of the year was 38,586, of which 1,343, including 277 duplicates, 190 replacements, 30 gifts, and 95 bound periodicals were added in 1921. The rebound volumes numbered 537. These statistics include the set of St. Nicholas, purchased in 1920; the volumes of which were not accessioned until 1921. There were among them 28 duplicates and 39 replacements; 28 of them requiring rebinding.

The books added to the library in 1921, with the exception of duplicates, replacements, and gifts are listed in this report as follows: Books purchased from Special funds, in Appendix B; and Books purchased from the General fund, in Appendix C.

The following additions were made to the Reference department: The book of knowledge; ed. by Mee and Thompson, 20v.; the condensed chemical dictionary, published by the Chemical catalogue company; Bardsley's Dictionary of English and Welsh surnames; Dictionary of the Apostolic church, ed. by James Hastings and others, 2v.; Encyclopaedia of religion and ethics, ed. by James Hastings and others, v.11; Grove's dictionary of music and musicians, American supplement, v.6; Massachusetts, Manual of the General Court, 1921; New Hazell annual and almanack, 1921; New International Encyclopaedia, 2d ed. (1921) 24v.; New international year book for 1920; Rand McNally commercial atlas of America, 52d ed. 1921; Statesman's year-book, 1921; United States catalog supplement, January, 1918-June, 1921; Who's who, 1921; World almanac and encyclopedia, 1921.

The list of periodicals, with the additions for 1922, is given in Appendix D. There have been a few changes, as follows: The Scientific American, published monthly, since November, 1921, is a combination of the former weekly Scientific American and the Scientific American monthly. The Touchstone is merged in the Arts. The publication of McClure's magazine has been discontinued. The Unpartisan review was taken over by the Weekly review in July 1921; a few months afterward, the latter periodical purchased the Independent, which since October 1, 1921, has borne the title the Independent and the weekly review.

Throughout the year, pictures from the Library Art Club were exhibited in the Reading Room. The subjects of the collections were as follows: Great war in Europe, No. 7, Menace of the submarine; Pictures for Children, by Jessie Willcox Smith, No. 1; Pocahontas and Captain John Smith; Great war in Europe, No. 12, Care of the wounded; Monuments of Belgium; Wonderland of Peru, No. 1; Mother Goose, illustrated by Frederick Richardson; Wonderland of Peru, No. 2; Cathedrals of the world. No. 3, Italian Cathedrals; Flags of the United States; Scenes in Surrey, England; Canal and River scenes; Great war in Europe, No. 16; "Guerre Finie! Boche napoo!"; Pictures for children, by Jessie Willcox Smith, No. 2.

The gifts for the year, as usual, include publications from the State and Federal governments; books, pamphlets, and periodicals from individuals and societies; and annual reports, bulletins and other publications from libraries, colleges, and universities. Several books for boys were presented to the library by Lester H. Cushing.

Among the additions to the valuable Fifield Collection, given by Mrs. Mary Fifield King, may be mentioned: A baton, used by Julius Eichberg at the Peace Jubilee, held in Boston in 1869, "tied with his signed photograph, together with that of the great violinist, Camilla Urso," and presented by him to Miss Susan B. Porter, of Weymouth, a prominent singer in the chorus; a number of books, which were "a part of the first circulating library of Weymouth;" and a foot-stove which was used in colonial times.

The Trustees hereby acknowledge these gifts and thank the donors.

The work of the library, with few exceptions, continued along the usual lines. Miss Alice B. Blanchard, the cataloguer, was granted four months leave of absence, during which time, Miss Zelia E. Palmer helped with the general work.

For six weeks during the summer, a weekly story-hour was conducted by Miss Emma F. Harris, with an average attendance of thirty children. Miss Harris, who is the head kindergartner of the public schools of Wellesley, is well adapted for this work.

The success of this story-hour indicated what might be accomplished along similar lines if a children's room could be provided.

Travelling libraries of French and Italian books—twenty-five titles in each language—were lent to the Tufts Library, for the use of its borrowers, by the Massachusetts Department of Education, Division of Public Libraries. These books were read with pleasure and profit by the French and Italian residents.

A new charging desk has been purchased, and will soon be installed. While it will be appreciated by patrons of the library, it will be especially enjoyed by the desk attendants, who since the shelves were opened to the public, three years ago, have used a small and inadequate table. This new desk will add greatly to the attractiveness and dignity of the delivery room.

The cooperation of the Town Appropriation Committee, in regard to the Library budget for 1921, enabled the Trustees not only to carry on the regular activities of the library, but also to make some of the more needed repairs. The largest expense in this connection, was that of re-slating the roof of the library building and renewing the copper gutters.

There are other repairs to be made. A different system of lighting should be installed in the stacks, which, in certain locations, are so dimly lighted that books are found and consulted with difficulty. To make the rooms comfortable in warm weather, both new awnings and new screens must be provided.

In anticipation of the celebration of Weymouth's tercentenary, the early part of the coming year would be a fitting time for re-decorating the interior of the building, the desirability of which must be apparent to the most casual observer.

CLARENCE P. WHITTLE

By order and in behalf of the Trustees.

To the Board of Selectmen and Overseers of the Poor:

Gentlemen:—I submit herewith the twentieth annual report of the accounting department showing the financial transactions of the several town departments. Some changes will be noted that differ materially from the reports of previous years, the most important being a classified statement of the receipts of the town as required by the Director of Accounts for the Commonwealth. The statements of expenditures have also been compiled to more closely conform to the requirements of the State office. The books of the department are open to the inspection of any citizen desiring more detailed information than that appearing in this report.

Respectfully,

EMERSON R. DIZER,
Town Accountant.

ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Water Commissioners

OF THE

1921

REPORT OF WATER COMMISSIONERS

January 1, 1922.

The Board organized on March 21, 1921, with the election of Frank H. Torrey as chairman; George E. Bicknell, clerk; and John H. Stetson, treasurer.

The following appointments were made: Fred O. Stevens, superintendent; George W. Sargent, engineer at pumping station; George E. Bicknell, collector and registrar; and W. B. Loud, officer at pond.

At a joint meeting with the Selectmen, Emerson R. Dizer was appointed Town Accountant.

The Boston Ice Company property on the shores of Great Pond has recently been purchased for the purpose of real estate development, it being the intention of the purchaser to build up a camp and bungalow community similar to that which has recently sprung up on the shores of Whitman's Pond.

The very beginning of this development, with the advent of road-builders, carpenters, prospective buyers, and sightseeing visitors, will render the water of Great Pond unsafe for drinking purposes unless given chemical treatment, and as the number of cottages increase, the chances of pollution will in a very short time be so great that the State Department of Health will be obliged to condemn this supply as they did Little Pond in Braintree some years ago.

If this should come to pass, there would then be but two ways of supplying Weymouth with safe drinking water; either an outside supply would have to be found, or Great Pond water would have to be filtered and possibly chlorinated, or in other words disinfected.

The only outside supply available is that of the Metropolitan District, the introduction of which would mean, according to figures recently furnished by the Metropolitan District Commission, an initial outlay of approximately $500,000 and an annual charge of $20,000 for water. In addition the Town would be obliged to maintain its distribution system as at present as well as a pumping station to handle part of the water used in South Weymouth. These costs, entailing as they would an increase of about 100 per cent. in the water rates, are clearly prohibitive.

The cost of a mechanical filter plant adapted to the present consumption is estimated at $75,000 with an annual operating cost of $9,000. From a financial standpoint this might appear to be a good way out of the difficulty, but the public as a rule prefers a water supply that is pure and sterile at the source, to one that has been contaminated and later purified by artificial agencies.

We believe that this would be the ultimate preference of the majority of the residents of Weymouth, and accordingly have inserted an article in the warrant for the next annual meeting, asking for authority to purchase at our discretion, certain lands on the shores of Great Pond, for the purpose of protecting the water supply.

If it were possible to obtain a suitable supply elsewhere at a reasonable cost, this Board would welcome the change and the utmost development of Great Pond as a residential community or as a pleasure resort. Since however, there is no alternative supply, we know that the people of Weymouth cannot afford to allow this one to become contaminated.

We request the following appropriations from our revenue:

Supt. Maintenance and Pumping Station	$26,480.00
